Declaration of Principles

This Supreme Council reaffirms its unswerving loyalty to the fundamental purpose of Freemasonry, which purpose from time immemorial has been to improve and strengthen the character of the individual man, and through the individual, the community with those spiritual values which give it strength and stability.

This Supreme Council believes that this purpose is to be attained by laying a broad basis of principle upon which men of every race, country, sect and opinion may unite.

Believing that good and true men can be trusted to act well and wisely, this Supreme Council considers it the duty of the Fraternity to impress upon its members the principles of personal righteousness and personal responsibility, to enlighten them as to those things which make for human welfare, and to inspire them with that feeling of charity, or well-wishing toward all mankind which will move them to transfer the principle and conviction to action.

To that end Freemasonry teaches a belief in God and faith in His divine purpose. It encourages the worship of God in conformity with the dictates of individual conscience. It stands for truth and justice, liberty, enlightenment, fraternity and philanthropy.

This Supreme Council expects of its members strict obedience to the laws of the land, and respect for their country's flag.

Such principles unite men and encourage the pursuit by them, individually and collectively, of worthy endeavors and the attainment of the purposes inherent in them. In that unity, human character achieves its highest unfolding and provides man's best hope for peace on earth and goodwill among men.

To the furtherance of these principles, all our ritual is directed and all our efforts are aimed. To their furtherance, each Master Mason has pledged himself and at the portal of the Scottish Rite has renewed that pledge.

This Supreme Council discountenances and rejects any attempt by any international groups or confederations of Scottish Rite Supreme Councils to legislate for individual Supreme Councils.

Recognizing that principles unite men, that programs sometimes divide them, and that the preservation of unity of purpose to principle is essential to Freemasonry, the Supreme Council affirms its continued adherence to that ancient and approved rule of Freemasonry which forbids the discussion within tyled doors of creeds, politics, or other topics apt to excite personal animosities.

This Supreme Council further affirms its conviction that it is not only contrary to the fundamental principles of Freemasonry, but exceedingly dangerous to its unity, strength, usefulness and welfare for Masonic Bodies in their official capacity to take formal action, attempt to exercise pressure or influence for or against any legislative project or proposal, or in any way attempt to procure the election or appointment of Government officials, whether executive, legislative or judicial, or to influence them, whether or not members of the Fraternity, in the performance of their official duties.

Greetings

The Scottish Rite Masons of the Valley of Scranton welcome you to our Fall Reunion.

To our Candidates, You are about to begin your pilgrimage through the Scottish Rite Degrees and it may become to you one of the greatest and most inspiring experiences of your life. If after becoming a Sublime Prince of the Royal Secret by receiving your 32° and you are no better than when you began your adventure, your investment of time and money will have been in vain. If however, you bring a receptive mind and a sensitive heart to these Degrees you will be a wiser and better man. Many men have been reborn, intellectually and spiritually during the conferring of these Degrees. It is the hope and prayer of the Brethren that your experiences may be rich and significant.

The hand of Fraternal Fellowship and Goodwill is extended to you. Should you have any questions, or if we can be of assistance in any way, please ask. By the conclusion of this Reunion, you will no longer be strangers to us, but rather our Brothers. Remember that we are here to help make Scottish Rite Masonry meaningful to you and your family.

To our Visitors, A cordial welcome is extended to you as you honor us with your presence. We invite, and urge you to make yourself known to us and as many members and officers as possible. We look to strengthen our Fraternal ties with each of you.

To our Members, Your presence is essential to our success, whether it is as an officer, a cast member, stagehand, steward or whatever effort you have been able to give to us. There is a place in Scottish Rite Masonry and the Valley of Scranton for each and every one of us. We thank you for sharing your time, your energy and most of all, your dedication.
